Instructions for Authorization to Release Information

The enclosed Authorization to Release Information form is required in order to allow your health plan, Care Improvement Plus, to release protected health information to another person or organization. Please review and complete the form. A number of important points are highlighted here. Each section of the form must be completed; missing information will result in delays in processing the authorization.

- Include your Member Identification Number.
- List in the “Recipient” section the name of the person or organization to whom you are authorizing your health plan to release information. Be sure to include the recipient’s contact information such as telephone number, fax number or address.
- Review the “Description of the Information to be Released” section before completing.
 - ✓ You should only check one of the three boxes listed.
 - ✓ If someone routinely assists you with your health care, for example, husband, wife, son or daughter, you may want to give that person access to all your information. To do this check the second box in this section and initial any/all applicable areas in the “Notes” section.
 - ✓ Check the “Specific Information” box if an individual is assisting you in resolving a particular issue such as an appeal, and initial any/all applicable areas in the “Notes” section.
- An “Expiration” must be listed. The default expiration date is termination of your enrollment with Care Improvement Plus. You can also allow the authorization to remain in effect until you revoke it in writing, or indicate that the authorization will expire on a specific date or at the conclusion of an event, such as an appeal.
- You or your personal representative (such as a power of attorney or guardian) must sign the authorization. If a personal representative signs the authorization, a copy of the legal documents showing you have authority to act on the member’s behalf must be submitted with the authorization.

If any of the checked items are wrong, or if you have any questions, please call us at 1-800-204-1002. TTY users should call 711. We are open 7 days a week from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm.
